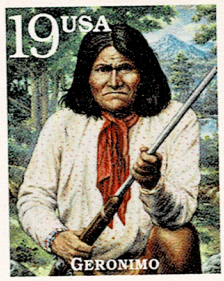
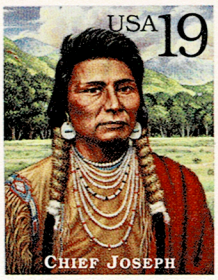
Native American Western Wear

Above a proud Chief in full dress sits atop his horse.

The hunched over visualization of a "War Dance"





Right:
Top: Geronimo a Chiricahya Apache war leader in adopted "white man's" garb.
Center: Sacagawea , a Shoshone was sold by another tribe to a French fur trapper. She and the trapper joined the Lewis & Clark expedition and she was their guide.
Bottom: Chief Joseph, a Nez Perce Chief whose tactics helped his people fight off the U.S. Arm y across several states.
All 3 images also appeared on a sheet of 29c stamps.

Chief's Headdresses of the Assiniboine, the Cheyenne, the Comanche, the Flathead and the Shoshone Tribes.

Costumes of Indian dances: Fancy dance, Butterfly dance; Traditional Dance; Raven Dance; and the Hoop Dance